

Special Saturday Workshop

Teaching Efficiently & Effectively in Adult
Basic Education Classrooms

Neil Sturomski, M.S.
Sturomski & Associates

Want your students to experience the success of learning? Want to improve your instruction skills? Then this seminar is for you!

Wednesday – Thursday – Friday – Saturday

Don't Miss the BEST Conference on LD

Learn – Exchange Ideas - Meet New People

Come All 4 Days or 1 Day

View session & workshop descriptions:

<http://ldaamerica.org/conference/index.asp>

LDA 47th Annual International Conference, Baltimore, MD February 17-20, 2010

Adult – Transition – Postsecondary

Sessions & Workshops Preview

- Navigating the Life Scene
- Career, Employment & Job Performance
- Life Beyond School
- College Transition
- Stories - Adults with LD
- Surviving in Law or Medical School
- Accommodations & Exams
- Adult Focused Teaching
- Time Management
- Organization
- Learning to Achieve
- Life with an LD Spouse
- Social Skills for Transition
- Teaching Self-Determination Skills

Learning about Learning Disabilities/Dyslexia
A Cross-Cultural Perspective

Wednesday Adult Topics Reception

5:30 to 7:00

Keynotes & Speakers

- Martha B. Denckla, M.D.
- Lisa A. Dieker, Ph.D.
- Ellen A. Callegary, Esquire
- Rick Lavoie

Other Topical Areas

- Assessment & Evaluation
- Early Childhood
- Diversity
- Evidence Based Practices
- Mental Health
- Parents & Families
- Research
- Technology
- Urban Education

Instruction – Instruction – Instruction

Early bird rate extended to Monday, February 1st!

Register today!

Visit LDA on the web at www.ldaamerica.org

Thursday Adult Luncheon

Larry B. Silver, M.D.

*"Adapting, Compensating & Covering Up My Learning Disability Never Ends.
I am 75 and Still Doing Each Every Day"*

Renowned, internationally recognized child & adolescent psychiatrist
Clinical professor of psychiatry at Georgetown University Medical Center in Washington DC

Friday Banquet

Deborah S. Phelps

"It Consists of a Three Letter Word – ALL"

Talented leader & master teacher with three decades of teaching and administrative experience Affectionately known as "swim mom" to three accomplished swimmers including son Michael, a 14-time Olympic gold medalist

Thursday Topical Adult Workshop

A World of Knowledge Open to All

Technology that is accessible - a global overview of the digital accessible movement Learn about software & mobile technology that makes learning accessible for adolescents & adults in transition, postsecondary & workforce environments

Christopher Lee & Joe Tedesco, AccessText; Peter Squire, LDA; Steve Noble; Bookshare & RFB&D

Finding Your Future: Postsecondary Opportunities

Saturday Morning – Open to All

The Best Postsecondary Plan is Only as Good as the Information That Supports Its Development!

Begin to create a strong competitive advantage in your future by learning about the options
Finding Your Future is about gaining real knowledge about postsecondary opportunities to make choices that promote a "goodness of fit" and lay a foundation for independence and self-sufficiency

Join experts in small discussion forums to learn about...

- Workforce Opportunities of the 21st Century
 - Exploration & Discovery Processes
 - Strategies for Long-term Employability
- Postsecondary Fair & Resources for Continued Opportunity Planning

Who should attend...

Anyone who has a learning disability or is supporting someone who has a learning disability who is looking for practical ideas and real answers

Format...

Informal discussion forums led by informed professionals
Opportunity to preview a variety of options

Real Life — Real Times — Real Information